

walking to school. After school they are playing soccer with the soccer balls you also sent. More Iraqis wave and smile at us here (adults too) than anywhere else I've been in Iraq. Indeed, I believe your organization has not only improved the lives and brightened the futures of the children here, but has probably saved the lives of the soldiers and Marines here by helping to show the goodwill of the American people. Thank You!

God Bless + Semper Par!
